STUDENT GUIDE

Fall C 2019
English Language Institute Mission

The mission of the English Language Institute (ELI) is to foster the learning of the English language and the culture of the United States of America through its regularly scheduled Intensive English Program and its various other programs scheduled on demand.

The ELI is a self-supporting program of the University of Florida. It is intended to serve speakers of other languages and is dedicated to offering superior instruction and best possible occasions for practice, using current materials and techniques, and providing an ideal learning environment.

These goals are accomplished by a well-trained staff enthusiastically committed to the success of all learners, actively involved in meeting their needs, and unquestionably focused on functioning as a team for the greater good of all concerned.

Regular Program Mission

The primary mission of the Intensive English Program is to prepare international students for successful study at the graduate or undergraduate level in institutions of higher learning in the USA. Students are taught to:

- read university-level materials;
- write academic papers and exams;
- speak more fluently in both formal and informal settings;
- take good, clear notes at lectures;
- take timed, objective tests; and,
- function knowledgeably in a North American culture for the purpose of establishing and maintaining productive relations with fellow students, professors and other members of the host community.

The ELI also provides the same language instruction to individuals already trained in their professions, and any others who wish to improve their level of English proficiency and cultural awareness.

Special Program Mission

The primary mission of Special Programs of the English Language Institute is to provide flexible programs of English study, focused to meet the specific needs of each international group we serve. In addition to instruction, we coordinate and support cultural experiences and living arrangements appropriate to the desired outcomes of each group.

By providing high-quality programs and individualized attention to each group, the Special Programs Office works to expand the positive reputation of the English Language Institute and the University of Florida.

ACADEMICS & THE ELI PROGRAM

ACADEMIC PROGRAM

The ELI is a special non-credit program of the University of Florida. Students learn English and the academic skills necessary to succeed in colleges or universities in the United States.

The program offers multiple levels of English, from beginning to advanced. Full-time students take at least twenty-three hours of English per week. This includes ten hours of reading/writing, five hours of grammar, and eight hours of listening/speaking. Listening/speaking focuses primarily on academic language but will also cover conversation and pronunciation. In the upper reading/writing levels, students learn to write using a computer. Students are placed in levels according to our placement test. Students may be placed in different levels for each skill.

Students may also choose to take Pronunciation (6 weeks only), Grammar for Writing, Business English, or TOEFL class depending on their proficiency. These courses are offered when enrollment permits.

With permission from the Associate Director, advanced students (returning students who were enrolled in the highest levels in a previous semester) may concurrently register for one course at the University of Florida while enrolled in ELI classes. See the receptionist in room 223 for an information sheet. The UF Graduate School allows departments to waive the TOEFL requirement for students who successfully complete the ELI. Students should check with their graduate departments to confirm.

ACCOMMODATIONS

Students with short-term or long-term documentable disabilities who need academic accommodations can register with the Disability Resource Center (DRC website: www.dso.ufl.edu/drc/). Requests must be supported by official documentation in English from a physician. After you register with the DRC, you will receive a letter to show your teachers that explains how they can help you succeed in class. A new letter must be obtained for each term you are a student, and it is important to begin this process as early as possible. Please see Victoria Shelly in Matherly 223 for more information.

APPROPRIATE BEHAVIOR

We hope that everyone in a class can benefit to the best possible extent from our instruction. Since each class is a public and social setting, a student's classroom behavior, whether bad or good, affects other students in the class either positively or negatively. If a student's behavior interferes with the instructor's ability to conduct the class or the ability of other students to benefit from the instructional program, then the instructor has the right to ask the student to refrain from the inappropriate behavior. If the disruptive behavior continues, further action may be needed. If the student's behavior does not improve over time, a student can be expelled from the English Language Institute and be required to return to their home country.

Please see the University student conduct code for more information about appropriate behavior in the classroom and on campus: http://www.dso.ufl.edu/sccr/process/student-conduct-honor-code

Some examples of problem behavior that we have experienced at the ELI include students laughing at classmates, texting in class, studying other subjects in class, and excessively challenging the teacher during class hours.

ELI Code of Conduct

Students are expected to have:

1. 100% attendance in all classes (barring illness)
2. 100% punctuality to all classes
3. 100% homework completion and preparation for classes
4. 100% honesty in completing all course assignments, quizzes, tests, projects, and exams
5. 100% individual responsibility and accountability for following classroom policies
6. 100% serious effort in all classes
7. 100% focused attention and respectful behavior during class
8. 100% use of English

Students who repeatedly demonstrate inability to follow this code may be required to leave the ELI and have their I20 terminated.

ARRIVAL AT THE ENGLISH LANGUAGE INSTITUTE

Registration

New students are required to attend the Welcome and Registration Check-In session on the first day of check-in week. New students must attend all seminars, orientation sessions and placement tests during this check-in week. The English Language Institute publishes the welcome and check-in dates for each term in the “calendar and tuition” document available in the ELI brochure and on the ELI website. In addition, new students are provided with this information in their acceptance packets. New students who do not attend the Welcome and Registration Check-In session forfeit their seat in the term and risk becoming out-of-status if travelling on an F-1 visa.

Check-in

All returning students must check in online or in person during the published dates. A returning student who does not check in is not guaranteed a place in the term and risks becoming out-of-status if travelling on an F-1 visa. Students who check in late must pay a $100 late check-in fee in order to be considered for placement in the term. Absences accrued while a student waits to learn if a seat is available count towards the total number of absences a student is allowed. The English Language Institute publishes the check-in dates for each term in the “calendar and tuition” document available in the ELI brochure and on the ELI website. In addition, returning students are informed, when filling out the “Returning Student Survey” at the end of the term, on which dates they are to check in to the English Language Institute the following term. Exceptional cases can petition for a waiver of this policy.

Starting Classes

All students, new and returning, are expected to attend all classes beginning on the first day of classes. The English Language Institute publishes the date of the first day of classes in the “calendar and tuition” document available in the ELI brochure and on the ELI website. In addition, new students are informed of the first day of classes in their acceptance letter and returning students are informed of the date classes start when filling out the “Returning Student Survey” at the end of the prior term. New students who do not attend classes beginning on the first day of classes may forfeit their seat in the term and risk becoming out-of-status if travelling on an F-1 visa. Returning students who do not begin attending all classes by the 3rd full day of classes may forfeit their seat in the term and risk becoming out of status if travelling on an F-1 visa. Returning students MUST inform the ELI if they will be arriving later than the first day of class. No students will be accepted after drop/add of the first week of classes. New and returning students will be counted absent for each day of class missed. Any late students who do not attend the first week of classes must pay a $100 late arrival fee in order to be considered for placement in the term. Exceptional cases can petition for a waiver of this policy.

ATTENDANCE

Class attendance is a requirement of the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS). It is also required by the ELI because we feel that you will not learn English if you do not come to class. To help students stay focused on their studies and to enforce the USCIS rules, the ELI has a strict attendance policy.

Students are encouraged to attend class regularly in order to learn the most from their courses. All students must attend 85% of classes. When you are not in class, you will be counted absent. This includes all regular class days around holidays.

In regular terms:

- Students who exceed 15% of absences will not receive a semester certificate and will be allowed to return to the English Language Institute ONLY on a probationary basis.
- Students who exceed 25% of absences will be removed from classes and their I-20 will be terminated.
In probationary terms:
- Students who exceed 15% of absences or fail a class will not get a semester certificate and not be allowed to return.
- Students who exceed 25% of absences will be removed from classes and their I-20 will be terminated.

Students cannot miss more than 3 days (during short terms) and 5 days (during long terms) of classes without informing the ELI before or immediately after the absence, or the student will be terminated.

Please note that three (3) tardies equals one (1) absence. Tardies are counted across all classes. For example, if you are late to reading/writing for two hours and grammar for one hour, then you have one more absence. Students who miss (20) minutes of a class are considered absent for that class period.

Students can monitor attendance on myELI.

COMMENCEMENT

COMPUTER LABORATORIES

The UF computer labs offer the use of computers with Internet access. Upper level reading/writing classes use the UF computer labs for reading comprehension, Internet research, e-mail discussion, and word processing practice. Computer labs are located throughout the university in Computer Sciences/Engineering, Weil Hall, Bryan Hall, Little Hall, and Norman Hall. You will need a GatorLink account to access the computers (See EMAIL as to how to get a GatorLink account).

COURSE OBJECTIVES

Every class at the ELI has specific objectives to be covered. In order to be promoted to a higher level the following term, students must achieve certain learning outcomes and meet certain exit criteria. Please see the Appendix C for ELI LEVEL COMPLETION CRITERIA for more information.

COURSEWORK

Students must pick up their coursework at the end of the semester or it will be shredded. If students contest their course grade, they will have one month into next term to petition.

CULTURAL IMMERSION PROGRAM (CIP)

The Cultural Immersion Program (CIP) gives you opportunities to learn about U.S. culture and helps you use English in real-life settings. There are three parts to the program: the volunteer program, weekend trips, and after-class activities.

The volunteer program provides a way for you to become involved in the Gainesville community and also includes the conversation partner program, in which you can practice English one-on-one with a native English speaker.

Almost every weekend you will have the opportunity to go on a CIP sponsored trip in or around Gainesville. The trips are divided into three categories: cultural, outdoors, and theme park. Finally, the CIP plans activities weekdays after classes, including sports and casual gatherings.

All these activities are led by language assistants who also work with teachers helping students in the ELI listening/speaking classes. The language assistants are English speakers and your peers. Often they are students’ first friends in the U.S. Overall, the Cultural Immersion Program helps you make the most of your stay in the United States.

EXITING FROM THE ELI

Students who wish to enter graduate school at the University of Florida may be interested in exiting (or completing) the English Language Institute and receiving an English language test score (IELTS, MELAB, TOEFL) exemption from the UF Graduate School.

The requirements for exiting the ELI include completing all level 60 courses. Please see Appendix C for the detailed requirements. Students who study in short (7- or 8-week) sessions are ineligible for exiting the ELI as the shorter terms are intended for casual learners, professionals, students with full admission to the university, or as preparation for a long semester. Additionally, the highest sections in a short term do not meet the detailed standards listed in the student guide (see Appendix C for more information).

GATORLINK ACCOUNT

All students are required to open a UF GatorLink account. In order to use the UF computer labs, you must open a GatorLink account.
To open a GatorLink account, you will need to follow these steps:

1. Pay tuition and be issued a UFID number from the ELI main office.
2. Get your UFID card from Gator 1 Central located in Room G071 in the Welcome Center at the J.W. Reitz Union
3. Go online – Navigate to http://login.ufl.edu and click on ‘Create Account’ to create your account.

Or

Go in person – The UF Computing Help desk can help you create your Gatorlink ID. Please bring your Gator 1 card. The Computing Help Desk is located in the HUB.

GRADES

Following is the grade scale used at the ELI: A, A-, B+, B, B-, C+, C, C-, D+, D, D-, F, W, WP, WF, I. Students with a grade F, W, WP or WF are not eligible for a semester certificate. Students who are failing a course are not eligible for a letter of recommendation for the term. Students who have an Incomplete (I) must complete their final assignments from the previous term by midterm or their grade will be averaged without the assignments. The semester certificate will be held until grades are complete. If a student fails a class, the student will not get a certificate. Sometimes we have classes with S (Satisfactory) or U (Unsatisfactory) grades.

GRADE REPORTS

At the end of the semester at our Commencement ceremony, you will get your grades. If you do not attend Commencement, you may pick up your packet at the main office, room 223, Matherly Hall, after Commencement. Please check for office hours. If you need your packet mailed to you, or you want a friend to pick up your packet, you must write a note with your signature on it. If your packet is to be mailed, please leave a current address. We do not give grades over the phone or via email. You can access midterm and final grade reports through myELI.

INTENSIVE STUDY

Instruction at the ELI is intensive. This means that you practice and study English a lot to learn it in a short time. We expect you to study or use English in all ELI activities - in class, doing homework, on weekend trips, and in everyday life.

LANGUAGE STUDIO

The university has a language laboratory in Room 1317 Turlington Hall, called The University of Florida Language Studio, where you can go to get extra listening and pronunciation practice. Listening/speaking classes may include some language laboratory activities. You can ask your listening/speaking teacher how to use the language laboratory. You must have a UF GatorLink email account to use the lab (See EMAIL as to how to get a GatorLink account). Language Studio is closed for the Summer.

LATE TO CLASS (Tardies)

The ELI expects all students to be present and in their seats when class begins. You will be considered tardy if you are not seated once class starts. Three tardies count as one absence. Tardies are counted across all classes. So if you are late two days in RW + one day in GM, you have one absence. If you miss more than 20 minutes of a class, you can be counted absent.

LEAVING THE ENGLISH LANGUAGE INSTITUTE EARLY

The English Language Institute publishes the dates for each term in their “calendar and tuition” as well as their “semester dates” documents. Every student receives these when they apply and when they check in. Students are expected to attend classes through the final published date of the term.

Absences are counted up to the last day, and you will be counted for every day that you will miss in the semester; therefore, you must have enough absences remaining in order to still receive a certificate. Please do not ask your teachers to administer a special exam for you.

LEAVING THE UNITED STATES AND RETURNING TO THE ELI

Before you leave the United States, you must get your I-20 signed in order to re-enter. If you leave, upon your return to the U.S. you will be required to report to the Student Health Care Center for a PPD evaluation and may be required to obtain a new PPD test. If for any reason you are unable to return to the ELI (including denial by U.S. Immigration or port of entry officials), you are not eligible for a tuition refund.

LETTERS OF RECOMMENDATION

Sometimes students will request letters of recommendations from their instructors. It is necessary to be a good student to get a recommendation. First talk to your instructors and ask if s/he can write a letter of recommendation. If your instructor agrees, come to the main office and fill out a document request form, and the ELI will ask your instructor to write a letter for you. Our main office will contact you when the letters are ready.

myELI is a secure internet-based portal where you can get information about the ELI and access your academic information. You can go to the myELI student portal at https://my.eli.ufl.edu. You received your myELI username and password after you applied to the ELI. If you have problems logging into myELI, please see the Receptionist in 223 Matherly Hall.

You should check your myELI account regularly to receive announcements from the ELI, messages from the administration, as well as updates about ELI activities. You can use myELI to see midterm and final grade reports and keep up to date on absences and tardies.

You are expected to keep your personal information on myELI up to date. This includes uploading your immunization form, your I-20, and health insurance information. You also should update your My Profile page to make sure your name, contact information, and address are correct.

This is a new system for the ELI. Some functions may not work 100% yet. If you see problems or have questions, please let the ELI receptionist know.

You can get a myELI User Guide in the ELI Main Office.

PARTICIPATION

In order to get full participation points in a class, students must be actively engaged in that class. Students who speak their own languages, ignore assignments, or sleep in class will lose participation and attendance points. Please check your class syllabus.

PETITIONS

If you have a problem that you feel has not been solved, you may file a petition to appeal the decision. You must fill out a form and a committee will meet and discuss your case. You will receive a response in a timely manner. Petitions Committee decisions are final.

For example, students who violate attendance and/or grade policies may petition to be allowed to return to the ELI, avoid probationary status the next semester, to receive a certificate, or to not have their I-20 terminated. Students should provide documentation to support their petition. The petition committee meets three times in the term: two weeks before the semester is over, the week that the semester is over, and just after the end of the term. Students who do not file petitions by the deadline will be subject to the ELI policy. After filing the petition, a student must continue going to class or the petition will be denied. All students must follow the ELI attendance policy. Sponsored students are responsible for checking with their sponsoring program on outcomes if they have excessive absences or poor grades. It is not our responsibility to inform you of the requirements for your scholarship. Petitions about terminating an I-20 will be considered by the petition committee as soon as possible.

PLACEMENT & EXIT
The ELI gives its placement test at the beginning and end of each session. The one at the beginning of the semester is an important tool for the ELI to use to place you correctly. The end-of-term exit test is used to measure students’ progress and to help place students who return to the ELI for another session. Students are required to take the exit test at the end of the session. Students must be on time (or early) to this exam or they will not be allowed to take the test. The exit tests will be administered during your listening and speaking classes. Part time students who do not have listening/speaking or grammar must take the exam, scheduled the Friday before commencement.

PROBATIONARY STUDENTS

Students who exceed 15% of absences and do not go over 25% of absences, or fail a course at the English Language Institute are permitted to return to the ELI as probationary students the following term. Probationary students who go over 15% of absences and/or fail a class will not be allowed to return. All students who go over 25% of absences will be asked to leave the ELI and will no longer be allowed to attend ELI classes and their I-20 will be terminated.

REPLACEMENT ELECTIVES

Students who are in level 50 or 60 are eligible to take replacement electives. We typically offer Grammar for Writing (replaces Listening/Speaking), Advanced Informal English (replaces Reading/Writing), and Business English (replaces Grammar). Priority for these classes are given to students who are returning, and have exited the skill that the course replaces. Students must have had a B or better the semester prior in the replacement skill and must place into level 50 or 60 in the new term. Sponsored students must exit the skill in order to take an elective. Students are not permitted to take Advanced Informal English or Business English more than once.

SATISFACTORY PROGRESS

The English Language Institute expects students to make satisfactory progress toward mastering the objectives for each of their classes. At midterm, students are informed of their grades, areas of success, as well as any areas in which they need to improve. The grades are submitted to the main office for the Associate Director to review. If there are other issues of concern, teachers may speak with students at any time. However, when further action is sought, students must be officially counseled.

To officially counsel students, instructors will have a conference with students who are not making sufficient progress and the students will sign a “counseling form” as documentation of what was discussed during the conference. A copy is given to the Associate Director and filed in the student’s record. If the student has already been counseled by the instructor and no improvement is observed and/or if the student has a grade of F in any of his/her classes, the Associate Director will provide the student with a warning. Depending on the student’s circumstance, the student could be warned to be probationary, not allowed to return, or to leave.

Students who stay in the same level for one or more courses for three semesters are not allowed to return the following semester. Replacement electives (such as our current courses, Grammar for Writing, Advanced Informal English, and Business English) count towards a semester in the current level for all students. Exceptions can be made for students who are in levels 10 through 50 who have been promoted at the end of the third semester.

PROMOTION CRITERIA

Often at the ELI students ask, “How do I move up to the next level?” As you know, helping students learn English is the main mission at the ELI. Your advancement and progress with the English language is very important to us. However, you need to show that you have certain skills, do certain tasks, and that you understand certain structures in order to advance to a higher level. These skills and structures will be taught to you throughout the semester. A detailed description of the promotion criteria for each skill and level can be seen at the end of this guide. By the end of the semester, you need to demonstrate that you have met the course objectives and that you can meet the requirements for promotion successfully in order to proceed to the next level. Please see Appendix C at the end of this guide for the detailed criteria and requirements.

READMISSION

Students who wish to return to the English Language Institute for another term must complete a returning student form. Admission will be granted if their performance in the previous semester has been satisfactory. The ELI reserves the right to deny readmission to students based on their performance and behavior in and out of class. There will be no fee for applying for readmission. Students must check in on the first day of check-in week by phone, fax, email or in person. Failure to do so will result in a $100 late check-in fee, no exceptions. If students leave the country and return to the ELI they will be required to have a new PPD (tuberculosis) test before starting classes.

RELIGIOUS HOLIDAYS

Students can make up class work as long as they tell their instructor beforehand about any religious holidays that require them to miss class. Absences for religious holidays are included in the 15% of classes students are permitted to miss, but students will not lose any class points for missing a religious holiday if they notify their teachers in advance and make up the work afterwards.
RIGHTS & PRIVILEGES

As a student at the ELI, you have many rights and privileges. You may use the University of Florida libraries and the infirmary by providing a valid student ID. An ID can be purchased from the University ID office after paying tuition and receiving your UFID number from our Fiscal Assistant.

You may also open a personal computer account in the computer lab. In addition, ELI students have access to the pools, Florida Gym, O’Connell Center weight rooms, and other outdoor fields and courts by showing their Gator-1 card. Because ELI students do not pay activity fees, they must purchase a recreation membership at the faculty, staff and affiliate rate in order to have access to the Student Recreation & Fitness Center, Southwest Recreation Center, Lake Wauburg, and the Broward Outdoor Recreation Center. Recreation memberships may be purchased at the Southwest Recreation Center.

SCHOLARSHIPS

In the long (Fall C, Spring C, and Summer C) semesters, the ELI awards a tuition-free semester to two students through the Jayne C. Harder Memorial and the JC Casagrande Peace scholarships. The students must meet the following criteria at the time of nomination:

1. Full-time student at the ELI.
2. Academic Excellence: The student should have a 4.0 GPA and demonstrate a high level of proficiency in at least three of the four skill areas.
3. Outstanding Progress: The student should demonstrate outstanding progress in language skills as evidenced by improvements in coursework.
4. Excellent Attendance: The student should miss no more than ten hours of class in the semester in the C term.
5. Speak English: The student should make every effort to speak English at all times while at the ELI and at ELI-sponsored activities.
6. Successful Work Strategies: The student should demonstrate personal initiative in and out of the classroom, making an effort to get involved in the ambient culture through outside activities such as regular participation in Cultural Immersion activities.

At the end of each semester, teachers nominate students whom they feel are deserving of the tuition-free semester and a panel of teachers and administrators interview the nominees and select the two winners. The two recipients must use their award the following long semester. Award semesters cannot be delayed; recipients are expected to remain model students and must speak at commencement at the end of their award semester.
The Jayne C. Harder Memorial Scholarship
This award honors the career of Dr. Jayne C. Harder, who founded the ELI in 1955 and served as its director until her retirement in 1984.

The JC Casagrande Peace Scholarship
This award is named after Dr. JC Casagrande, the ELI’s director from 1984 to 2003. The scholarship was instituted by Dr. Casagrande following the tragedy of September 11, 2001, and was renamed in his honor in 2003 when he retired. It celebrates all ELI students and staff as peacemakers, underscoring their role in promoting international understanding, goodwill and peace.

The Dr. Valentina Komaniecka Memorial Scholarship
This award for $500 towards tuition is named after Dr. Komaniecka, who was a proponent of international cooperation and collaboration throughout her career, and an administrator and instructor at the UF English Language Institute was established in 2017. This student achievement scholarship honors Valentina’s strong personal interest in international educational outreach.

SEMESTER CERTIFICATE
All students who meet the following requirements will receive a Semester Certificate at the end of the term in which they are enrolled:

1. Attend 85% of class hours during the term.
2. Receive a passing grade in all the classes in which they are enrolled.
3. Have met all administrative requirements (immunizations and health insurance)
4. Have no outstanding charges on campus (i.e., tuition, infirmary, library, parking fines, etc.).

STUDENT GRADE REPORTS
The U.S. educational system involves frequent testing. In addition to major examinations, you will have shorter quizzes in your classes periodically. You will also have regular homework. At the beginning of the semester, each teacher will give you a syllabus explaining class requirements and how you will be evaluated. Also, at midterm and the end of the term, you will receive a grade for the course.

In each class, you will receive two grades, one based on your test scores, homework assignments, class participation, attendance and one based on your proficiency (See Appendix B). At the end of the semester, your teachers will fill out student grade reports about you. These forms show us how well you are progressing in English. They are also used for writing letters of recommendation to universities and colleges.
STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

The Student Learning Outcomes at the ELI are based on our course objectives. They inform you on what you will be able to do by the end of the term. See the Appendix C for ELI Student Learning Outcomes.

SUGGESTIONS AND COMPLAINTS

If you are unhappy about something at the ELI, or if you have a suggestion for how the ELI can improve, please use one of the procedures below:

• Make your suggestion or complaint on the Program Evaluation form which is completed by all ELI students at the end of each semester.
• Make your suggestion or complaint on the Course & Instructor Evaluation form which is completed by students in each ELI class at mid-term and at the end of each semester.
• Make an appointment to talk with the ELI Associate Director.
• To make a formal complaint, complete a “Grievance Form,” which you can get from the ELI Associate Director. Once you submit this form, the ELI Associate Director will meet with you or respond to you in writing.

TUTORING

ELI instructors and language assistants are not permitted to accept money to tutor ELI students. If you would like to find a non-ELI paid tutor, you should talk to the Student Life Coordinator.

UNSATISFACTORY PERFORMANCE

Students whose attendance or course work is unsatisfactory will not be readmitted to the English Language Institute. At midterm, students whose performance is unsatisfactory will be counseled in order to give them an opportunity to bring their performance up to a satisfactory level before the end of the term. Some students will be permitted to return probationary. See Probationary Students for more information.

WITHDRAWING FROM THE ELI

The drop/add deadline for courses is posted in the published semester dates. Unless a student drops a class prior to that deadline, a student is required to pay the tuition for the class(es) and will not receive any refunds or credits for future semesters.

After the tuition due date, a student may withdraw from a course or the ELI, but a grade will be assigned. If the student withdraws within one full week after official level changes or within two weeks after the first day of class or within two weeks of the first day of class for B terms, s/he will receive a grade of W (withdraw). If students withdraw after these dates, students will receive a WP (withdraw passing) or a WF (withdraw failing) grade on their ELI record.

All students must see the Assistant Director (Admissions) before withdrawing, and fill out a withdrawal form. If F-1 students stop attending class(es) without withdrawing, they will have very serious immigration problems. Withdrawal at any time may lead to the cancellation of your student insurance.

Petitions for exceptions to the withdrawal rules may be made to the Director. All petition decisions are made on a case-by-case basis, and all petition decisions are final. A petition decision made for one student does not have any bearing on the petition decision for another student. Students may not withdraw in the last two weeks of the term.

A student who does not withdraw will receive a failing grade in his/her classes and will continue to add absences.

ACTIVITIES & EMPLOYMENT

EMPLOYMENT

_F-1 Students_ may work during their enrollment with the English Language Institute; however, there are some restrictions:

1. Students may not work more than 20 hours per week.
2. Students must work for approved institutions/locations within the University of Florida.
3. Students may not work for an off-campus employer.
4. If a student does gain on-campus employment, he or she should meet with the Assistant Director (Admissions) to discuss obtaining a social security number.

UNIVERSITY ACTIVITIES

The University of Florida offers many opportunities for you to enjoy your free time and practice English. The Reitz Union is a building on campus which is dedicated entirely to student activities. The Reitz Union offers non-credit courses in art, photography, dance, cooking, exercise, and many other topics (www.union.ufl.edu). The university also has a fitness center, or gym, where you can go to work out. Additionally, there are many types of clubs, such as the soccer club, karate club, chess club, and photography club. Campus maps are available in the ELI main office, Room 223 Matherly Hall. Please see the Cultural Immersion Coordinator for details on how to join these clubs and get the most out of your university community.
CHECK-IN & ADMISSIONS

HEALTH INSURANCE

HEALTH INSURANCE IS REQUIRED BY THE UNIVERSITY OF FLORIDA for all international students (F-1). Insurance is very important because of the high cost of medical care in the United States. ELI students are able to purchase special health insurance specifically for international students, spouses and children. At the beginning of each semester there is a special orientation to give new ELI students information about insurance. If you have insurance from your country, it must meet all of the requirements specified on the “Health Insurance Information” form in order for it to be considered acceptable. To use health insurance not approved by UF, you must see the Student Life Coordinator.

IMMIGRATION

Immigration rules are complicated and change from time to time. If you have any questions about your immigration status, please talk with the Assistant Director (Admissions) in 223B Matherly Hall.

If you plan to travel outside the U.S. and return, YOUR I-20 FORM MUST BE SIGNED BY THE ASSISTANT DIRECTOR (ADMISSIONS) BEFORE YOU LEAVE. You can be refused re-entry to the U.S. if you do not have the signature.

New students: upon arrival, you entered the US with an Initial I-20. You will receive a new Active I-20 which states that you are enrolled at the ELI with your schedule. With the Active I-20, you can get a driver’s license, and you will avoid confusion if you exit and reenter the US. If you do not get a new Active I-20, please come by the main office at your earliest convenience.

HOW TO MAINTAIN YOUR F-1 STUDENT VISA STATUS

1. Be a full-time student (23 classroom hours per week).
2. Attend classes regularly. If you miss more than 15% of your classes, you may not be allowed to return to the ELI the next term or your I-20 may be terminated and you will have to leave the country or apply for reinstatement with USCIS.
3. If your I-20 will expire, apply for an extension 60 days before.
4. Be sure your passport is valid 6 months into the future.
5. Do not work. (Exception: on-campus job of 20 hours maximum per week.)
6. You are eligible for a vacation semester after being enrolled for two C semesters in a row (B semesters do not count).
7. If you move, report your change of address on form AR-11.
IMMUNIZATIONS

You are required to complete the UF Mandatory Immunization and Health History Form to show proof of immunization for measles, mumps, and rubella, and a tuberculosis skin test by the SECOND WEEK of classes. No other forms, records, or proof of immunizations will be accepted. Only the UF Mandatory Immunization and Health History Form, completed by a physician, will be accepted. If you have not been immunized by the time you arrive in the United States or cannot prove that you were immunized, you must be immunized here. Immunizations can be completed on campus at the Student Health Care Center once you have paid your tuition and received your UF Identification Number. If you do not show proof of immunization by the deadline, YOU WILL NOT BE ALLOWED TO ATTEND CLASSES. You should upload your completed immunization form in your myELI account. If you have any questions about immunization, see the receptionist in 223 Matherly Hall.

IMPORTANT

Those who do not meet the ELI’s requirements for tuition, insurance and immunization risk the following consequences:

1. They will not be permitted to attend classes.
2. They will not receive a certificate of completion.
3. They will not be allowed return to this institute.

If you already have a UFID number (for example, as a spouse) you will keep the same number. If you move from ELI to a UF degree program, you will keep the same UFID number assigned to you at the ELI. Please NOTE: your ID for the my.eli.ufl.edu portal is not the UFID.

TUITION

At the beginning of each semester, you must pay your tuition by the deadline. Tuition is collected only from 8:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. We accept only a bank check, a money order or traveler’s checks made out to the University of Florida in the exact amount of tuition. We also accept Visa, MasterCard and American Express online. Sponsored students must bring a letter, which confirms their scholarship sponsorship and provides billing information.

2. If you have not paid tuition (or provided sponsorship information) by the deadline, YOU WILL NOT BE ABLE TO ATTEND CLASSES.
3. Students who pay tuition after the official deadline must pay a $50 late fee (per week).
4. NO REFUNDS or credits for tuition after the tuition deadline.

If you have any questions about the ELI tuition policy, you may meet with the Fiscal Assistant and wish to request a tuition deadline extension. If you have further questions or suggestions about the policies, please schedule a meeting with the Director.

POLICIES & PROCEDURES

ACADEMIC HONESTY

We understand that there are cultural differences regarding helping, and receiving help from classmates, and the acceptability of plagiarism, and using other’s work. Please read below to clearly understand US cultural beliefs on academic honesty.

You are expected to work on the test or assignment without the help of another person. Your teachers expect to be able to see your progress. Getting the help of another person will not give your teachers a true picture of your language proficiency. You may not look at the paper of your neighbor, talk to other people, or look at notes when taking tests or quizzes, unless they are specifically stated as “open note” tests.

An extremely serious form of cheating is plagiarism. Plagiarism is copying someone else’s work and saying you did it without giving credit to the source. This is an offense so serious that in many institutions you will be required to leave. All work that you present in all your classes must be your own, or you must give proper credit to the original creator of the work. If you are caught plagiarizing (using words in an assignment that are not your own) getting help from another student, or any of the above mentioned activities, your behavior will be considered cheating and you will face serious consequences. You could even fail a course. Please understand if you copy anything from the Internet, it is plagiarism!

There is an official University of Florida policy regarding academic honesty. The teacher decides what consequences to give to students who cheat or plagiarize. Cheating and plagiarizing can cause a student to fail a course and/or not receive a certificate. CHEATING OR PLAGIARIZING IS A SERIOUS OFFENSE IN THE U.S., AT THE UNIVERSITY OF FLORIDA, AND AT THE ENGLISH LANGUAGE INSTITUTE. For the UF policy on cheating, please refer to the Undergraduate Catalogue section entitled “Academic Honesty” or go to: http://www.dso.ufl.edu/sccr/honorcodes/honorcode.php

CHILDREN IN THE ELI

Due to concerns of safety and issues of liability for the University of Florida, the ELI strongly discourages students from bringing their children to campus during the week. When children are brought to campus, they cannot be taken to class and they cannot be supervised by the employees of the ELI or other students at the ELI. At no time should children be left unsupervised at the ELI or anywhere in the United States. Leaving children unsupervised in the United States is very dangerous and is punishable as a crime. Of course, supervised children are welcome to come to all appropriate CIP trips and activities such as picnics, barbecues, commencement and Café Friday. If you need help arranging for childcare, please speak to the Student Life Coordinator.

CONDITIONALLY ADMITTED STUDENTS

Students with ELI Conditional Admission to the UF Graduate School cannot take a replacement elective until they have exited the skill which the elective replaces. Students with ELI Conditional Admission to the UF Graduate School cannot take a vacation semester until they have exited at least one skill or have approval from their department. Students who gain Conditional Admission to UF while enrolled at the ELI should provide the letter of acceptance to the Assistant Director (Admissions).
DOCUMENT REQUESTS

If you need letters and documents from the English Language Institute, you must come to the main office, 223 Matherly Hall, and fill out a Document Request Form. Please fill out the form completely with your most current contact information. Incomplete forms increase the delay time on completion of documents. Please note that there is a minimum amount of time for documents to be completed.

Students may request a summary of all academic work at the English Language Institute. All requests must be made through the Document Request Form and there is a wait time of three days. All transcripts can either be picked up at the ELI in a sealed envelope or sent directly to a third party.

NO-SMOKING POLICY

University of Florida is a tobacco-free campus. Smoking and the use of tobacco products are not allowed on the UF campus or within 50 feet of the campus. This includes all courtyard and open areas. You should also not smoke on private property or litter with your cigarettes. Ask your Language Assistants about appropriate places to smoke. Violating the “No Smoking Policy” may have serious consequences such as citations and/or monetary fines.

NOISE

Matherly Hall and Norman Hall are home to classes and offices to many different departments. Please remember to be courteous of others and keep the noise level down while the university is in session.

PERSONAL ELECTRONIC DEVICES

Personal electronic devices can be a distraction to your classmates, your teacher, and the lesson of the day. Therefore, the ELI requires that you turn off and put your cell phones away during class hours. You may be counted absent by your teacher if you leave class to answer your phone.

SPONSORED F-1 STUDENTS

To get an extension letter, sponsored F-1 students should be making steady progress through core classes and levels. Sponsored F-1 students cannot take a replacement elective until exiting the skill it replaces.

TEXTBOOKS
All ELI students must buy textbooks. When you applied to the ELI, you stated that you had enough money for texts. You must purchase your texts by the end of the first week of classes.

USE OF ENGLISH IN THE ELI

ELI faculty and staff greatly value multilingualism and the many languages of the world. However, we realize ELI students are here to learn and practice English. For this reason, ELI students are expected to speak only English in the ELI and at ELI activities. All ELI teachers and staff will use only English with students, even if we speak other languages. In fact, if we hear you speaking anything other than English while on the second floor of Matherly Hall, any teacher, language assistant or staff will remind you to speak English only. If you continue to speak another language, we may ask you to leave the second floor. We have this policy to help all students learn English faster.

EMERGENCIES

Emergency Cell Phone (352-672-0144)

Students may call the emergency cell phone when an emergency occurs after hours. These can be medical or legal, for example, being admitted to the hospital or arrested. Please do not call the emergency cell phone for non-emergencies, i.e. anything that can wait to be answered via email or during regular office hours.

Fire Drill

All UF buildings are equipped with emergency signals and alarms in the case of fire. UF routinely holds fire drills in order to practice evacuation from buildings. You should never assume it is a drill when you hear the alarm though. When you hear a fire alarm, you should immediately leave the building without running or pushing. You should use the stairs and never the elevators. If the drill occurs during class time, please stay with your class and follow your instructor using the same exit and meeting points mentioned above.

You should not return to the building until an official has told you to return. Fire alarms should always be taken seriously. You should NEVER pull a fire alarm unless you see a fire. Pulling a “false alarm” is a serious crime which means you may go to jail, be forced to return to your country, and may not be able to get another visa to travel to the United States or may be fined up to US$500.

Weather

Although Gainesville is in the center of the state and usually very safe from hurricanes, it is not unusual for there to be hurricane or tropical storm watches or warnings. Sometimes, because of these warnings, the University of Florida will cancel classes. If the University of Florida cancels classes, there will be no classes at the ELI. In the case of a hurricane or other weather emergency, ELI staff will keep you informed on what preparations you should make and if classes are cancelled. If the office is closed and telephone service is working, you can call 273-4395 and listen to the message to hear any announcements regarding the weather emergency. We will also try to keep updates on the ELI Facebook page. The best place to check for emergency information is the UF website: www.ufl.edu

Florida is the lightning capital of the world. Every year people are killed because they are not careful during thunderstorms. If you hear thunder, you can be hit and killed by lightning. Thunderstorms can also be dangerous if there is a lot of wind and falling trees & tree limbs. Always seek shelter indoors. Do not seek shelter under a tree, an umbrella or other tall object. Lightning often strikes the tallest object in an area and the electric current can travel through the ground and water for a long, long distance. You should never, ever go swimming during an electrical storm.

In the case of any and all after-hours emergencies, we will do our best to contact you by phone to inform you of any school closings. The ELI will always follow the University of Florida’s procedures on school closing, so any information displayed on UF’s main web site (www.ufl.edu) is official. If the emergency situation occurs over a period of days, please continue to check the University’s main web site (www.ufl.edu). Download Gator Safe App.

PUBLICATIONS

ELI STUDENT VOICES

Each semester we publish the ELI Student Voices. ELI Student Voices is a collection of students’ writing including paragraphs, essays, poetry, etc. Copies of ELI Student Voices are distributed at the Commencement ceremony. It is also available on the web at http://www.eli.ufl.edu/publications.htm.

ELI WEEKLY

Each week the ELI newsletter, the ELI Weekly, is published. It has important and interesting information about ELI rules, upcoming activities, and more. Be sure to read it every week so you do not miss any necessary information. Students who take reading and writing will receive it in their reading and writing class each week. It is available as hard copy and on the web at http://www.eli.ufl.edu/publications.htm.
THANK YOU FOR STUDYING WITH US

We, the staff and teachers of the ELI, hope you will take advantage of the many opportunities now available to you inside and outside of the classroom to improve your English at the ELI. Everything we do is to help you succeed in your goal to learn English. Your success, however, also depends on the effort you put into this learning experience. The enthusiasm and motivation must come from you. In the end, you will find that your success in learning English depends more on your dedication than on any other single factor. We wish you the best of luck in your efforts.

• On the following pages you can find the objectives, outcomes and promotion criteria for each skill and level. Please note that the objectives must be covered in each class, but are not necessarily tested in a traditional way, and, thus, cannot be expressed as an outcome. In some skills and levels, there are extra optional objectives. The different objectives are noted below.
To clarify, an objective is “a specific curricular element taught through course content and activities. The course objectives guide instruction in order to provide a learning experience for all students and in aggregate address the course goals.” A student learning outcome “must be written in terms of observable and measurable language skills. They provide the foundation for assessment by implying what will be assessed and appropriate methods of assessment.”

Below are the objectives to be covered in each level. The learning outcomes are based on the objectives. Students will be tested on the outcomes and in the course syllabus, should be informed that they should be able to demonstrate ability in those areas, and mastery is required in order to be promoted. The student reports will only have the outcomes listed. Some objectives are optional (noted below), and some are required, but not easily assessable.

Students need to be proficient in the skills taught in previous levels.
Listening/Speaking

Listening/Speaking 10 Goal:

Speaking: Expose students to university classroom behaviors and daily interactions, including introductions, asking and answering questions about personal details, and interacting in basic conversation. Introduce informal presentation skills.

Listening: Introduce students to familiar everyday expressions and basic phrases related to themselves and their surroundings. Develop students’ comprehension of simplified spoken interactions adapted for beginning learners.
