Feel like you’re in the movies!

This Saturday, we will be going to Disney's Hollywood Studios in Orlando. At Hollywood Studios, you can see a little of Disney's movie magic. Come experience the Tower of Terror, ride the Rock-n-Rolleroaster, and see a Disney fireworks show with the ELI!

When: Saturday, October 27, at 11:00am.

Where: Disney’s Hollywood Studios in Orlando. Please arrive at Norman Garage on the day of the trip at 8:15am. We will be returning to Gainesville around 10:00pm.

What to Bring: Wear tennis shoes, comfortable clothes, and sun-block. Also bring extra money for lunch and souvenirs.

IMPORTANT: Bus passes are on sale now. To get a pass, bring $20 cash and your Gator 1 ID card to Nate in Norman 318 between 9:00am and 12:30 pm. Bus passes do not include the admission price to Hollywood Studios, which is about $90.

Don’t forget to purchase your bus pass!

The Next Trip

Next weekend, we will be holding our second Volunteer Day of the semester. Details will be on the Activities Board and in the next Weekly.

New students: If you’re a new Fall B student, Welcome! If you’re a veteran Fall C student, please welcome the new Fall B students.

Immunizations & Insurance: All of our students are required to have certain immunizations and adequate health insurance in order to attend class. We do this because UF requires it and because we care about you and don't want you to infect each other with tuberculosis or get sick and not have insurance. So please remember to take care of your insurance and immunization as soon as possible. You will not be allowed to attend class until you do.

Sickness: Remember to sneeze and cough into your elbow. If you sneeze into your hand and then shake hands with your classmates or teacher, you could spread your sickness to them.

The following is a list of the many places of origin of our new Fall B students:

Manners and Culture

Q: What do Americans do on the weekend?
A: Americans would probably answer the same way you would. Some would say they sleep, some would say they party, some would say they travel, some would say they do household chores, some would say they study, etc. Most likely, you’d even get a combination of all of those answers.

Grammar

Q: I don’t know when to use articles. When do I use a/an, the, or nothing?
A: The most important question is whether it’s singular or plural. Singular nouns MUST have an article. There are exceptions, but generally this is true. Then you have to decide whether it’s a specific noun or a general noun, and who knows the information. There are more specific guidelines but these are a good foundation to go on. What article do you think should go in the following examples?

- I want to eat ___ avocado.
- The girl is wearing ___ blue hat.
- Let’s go see ___ movie you suggested.

Q: Why don’t Americans pronounce the words the way they are written?
A: English is a combination of French, German, Latin, Dutch, Arabic, Spanish, Japanese, etc. Because there are so many different languages with their own sound system and spelling system, the spelling in English got a little crazy. In addition, there was NO standardized spelling in English at all until well into the 19th Century. On top of that, the way words are pronounced today has changed, but we keep the old spelling. For all these reasons, learning how to pronounce words correctly is frustrating. Here are some crazy examples:

- too, shoe, flew, through, true
- toe, sew, flow, though
