Homecoming is the weekend when current and former UF students celebrate the Gators with a parade, a giant pep rally, and the Homecoming game, of course! The University of Florida’s Homecoming Parade is the largest student run parade in the United States! It will have floats, bands, decorated vehicles and representatives from UF and Gainesville. Homecoming draws over 150,000 people every year and is broadcasted live on television. This truly is a part of US culture!

The ELI will go as a group to see the parade. It is a great chance to spend a morning with friends and to show your support for UF.

When: The parade is at noon on Friday, November 9th but we will meet at NRN garage at 11:00am and we will walk to University Ave. together. The parade will draw thousands of people, so we need to get there early to be able to see!

What To Bring: The most important thing are your Orange and Blue Gator clothes! You should also bring a blanket or folding chair to sit on, sunscreen if it’s sunny, or an umbrella if it’s raining. Also, you can bring snacks and drinks or money to buy food and drinks.

Student Voices

If you haven’t already, send your submissions to Steve Flocks at sflocks@ufl.edu for Student Voices. The last day is November 23rd. Here is a shorter and less serious piece from Summer 2009. If you’d like to see more submissions, check out past issues online at: http://www.eli.ufl.edu/publications.htm

How to Tempt Someone

By Seung Jin (David) in Summer 2009

Sit down near a target and watch the target for a long time quietly. Then when you look at each other, you should do a wink. God bless you.
Friday 6 p.m. - 10 p.m.
Gator Nights
Meet at the Reitz Union Information Desk.
Bring your Gator1

Notes from the Office

Class Photo:  Don’t forget, the class photo is on Tuesday, November 6th, at 1:45pm on the front steps of Tigert Hall! Please leave your backpacks on the ground by the bushes, don’t sit on ground or the edges of the stairs and most importantly, squeeze together!

Class Attendance: Remember, your attendance is very, very important. Every 3 tardies counts as 1 hour of absence, and you are limited in the number of hours you can miss. If you have any questions about your attendance, be sure to ask your teachers as soon as possible.

Homecoming Holiday: Friday, November 9th, is Homecoming and Monday, November 12th is Veteran’s Day. There will be no ELI classes and the ELI Main Office will be closed on Friday and Monday.

Holidays and RTS Bus Service: There is reduced or no campus service on these days: November 12 (Monday, Veterans’ Day) November 21, 22, and 23 (Thanksgiving Holiday, Wednesday thru Friday)

December 17-January 1, 2012-2013 (End-of-year Break)

These changes can be accessed on the RTS website www.go-rts.com

I-20s: If you’re leaving the country for the Thanksgiving or End-of-year breaks, have your I-20 signed in the ELI Main Office (Room 315).

Happy birthday, you hot scorpios!

Manners and Culture

Q: What’s the most important holiday in the US?
A: Well, that’s a tough question, mainly because there are so many holidays that hold special meanings to so many people. Our biggest family holiday is probably Thanksgiving. This is the one holiday that is specifically about visiting family and friends. It’s a big feast day that isn’t specially linked to any one religion or set of beliefs. Many people fly or drive to visit their family in other states.

Quote of the Week

There are short-cuts to happiness, and dancing is one of them.
