Manners and Culture

Q: I wonder about American tip culture. Who should I tip? How much? In my country, we don’t tip.

Interesting you should ask; usually, we don’t have any questions yet, and I run a tip column instead of a manners column. So, I’m going to give you my standard answer!

Well, most often, you tip for services received. The origin of the word "tip" is something that is not 100% certain, but the most common story is that it comes from the acronym To Insure Prompt Service. There are many situations where tipping is expected, but there are some that you might think require tipping that don’t. The following is a pretty good indicator—though not a totally exhaustive list—of Hairdressers and Nail Sculptors: 15 to 20% of the total bill

Hotels: Bellhops, $1 per bag; $5 minimum total; Concierge, $5 to $10 for special services; Maids, for long stays, $1 per person per night, at the end of stay; Room Service, 15% of total—sometimes this amount or even more is already added in bill (cheek!)

Parking: Valet parking at a hotel or restaurant, $2. Note that many people now tip both dropping off and picking up.

Pizza Delivery: $1 per pizza

Restaurants: 15 to 20% of the total bill; more if the service was particularly memorable or if you have many special requests which are promptly and cheerfully honored. Tipping in restaurants is particularly important here in the US; servers in restaurants have a minimum wage of only $2.13 an hour—less than 40% of the national minimum wage.

Taxis: $1 minimum, 15% on fares over $8. Drivers in large cities expect 20%.

Additionally, in some places, there will be people who help you outside with your purchases (as in the grocery store). With a particularly helpful person or a particularly large order, you may offer a tip of a dollar or two—but if you see a sign inside the store (once again, as in many grocery stores), that employees are not allowed to accept tips, don’t offer. Another note to remember about tipping is that when you are part of a large party in a restaurant and you are splitting the bill, make sure that you calculate and include the tip in the amount you contribute to the total amount paid; this is a common error which often shortchanges the service person. Some restaurants nowadays automatically include a 15% gratuity in the bill for large groups.

Q: Why do Americans like beer so much?

A: It seems that way, doesn’t it? You’re in a college town, and college students tend to drink more beer than a lot of the population at large. It’s a fairly inexpensive way to consume alcohol. The US, though, isn’t even in the top 10 when it comes to per capita beer consumption—we rank only 13th. The top 12, in order are: the Czech Republic, Ireland, Germany, Australia, Austria, the UK, Belgium, Denmark, Finland, Luxembourg, Slovakia, and Spain.
